

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 20 lines of text, with some lines being significantly more legible than others. The script is dense and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction, given the use of terms like 'procurator' and 'procuratoribus'.
