

Handwritten text in a historical script, likely a Latin liturgical or legal document. The text is written in a cursive hand with many flourishes and is organized into several paragraphs. The script is dense and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text appears to be a formal declaration or a set of regulations, given the use of terms like 'regnum' and 'seigneurie'.

Vertical text on the left margin, possibly a list of names or titles, including 'Gouveneur', 'Seigneur', and 'Comte'. The text is written in the same cursive hand as the main body of the document.
