

Handwritten text at the top of the page, including the word "legibus" on the left and "in nomine domini Amen" in the center.

Handwritten text in the upper middle section, possibly a title or introductory phrase.

Handwritten text in the middle section, including the name "Robertus" and the word "Brita".

A large, highly decorative calligraphic flourish or signature that dominates the lower half of the page.

