

of edification and of the right of the church in the world

1. The right of the church
to be free from secular interference and to be governed by its own
laws and officers
The right of the church
to be free from secular
interference and to be
governed by its own
laws and officers

2. The right of the church
to be free from secular
interference and to be
governed by its own
laws and officers

3. The right of the church
to be free from secular
interference and to be
governed by its own
laws and officers

4. The right of the church
to be free from secular
interference and to be
governed by its own
laws and officers

regional near good
meas

