

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. It consists of approximately 20 lines of text, with some lines starting with large, decorative initials. The script is dense and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction, given the use of terms like "procurator" and "procuratoribus".
