

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines appearing to be underlined or separated by small gaps. The handwriting is characteristic of the late 16th or early 17th century. The text is oriented vertically on the page, reading from top to bottom. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but clearly aged manuscript.
