Handwritten text, possibly a signature or a specific heading, located in the middle section of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the document's content. The lines are densely packed and written in a consistent hand.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, located in the lower section of the page. The text appears to be a continuation of the previous sections.
