

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header, written in a cursive script.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the narrative or list.

Third block of handwritten text, showing a continuation of the script.

Fourth block of handwritten text, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily corrected.

Fifth block of handwritten text, featuring a large, stylized initial or signature.

Sixth block of handwritten text, concluding the page's main content.

