

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or a related language. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines. The script is dense and somewhat cursive, with some characters appearing to be ligatures. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age, including some staining and discoloration. The text appears to be a formal document or a religious text, given the style and the use of certain characters that resemble ecclesiastical Latin.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, continuing the script from the main body. It consists of about 6 lines of text, which appear to be a concluding section or a separate entry. The handwriting is consistent with the rest of the page.
