

This is a page of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and spans most of the page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to land or property, given the use of terms like "parcels" and "land". The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher in many places.

This section of the page contains a continuation of the handwritten text. It features several lines of cursive script, with some words appearing to be underlined or written in a slightly larger hand. The text is very dense and difficult to read due to the cursive style and fading.
