

The first part of the text is written in a dense, cursive hand. It begins with a large, ornate initial 'C' on the left side. The text is mostly illegible due to the extreme cursive style and fading.

The second section of text continues the cursive script. It features several lines of text, some with larger initials. The handwriting is consistent with the first section, though the ink appears slightly darker in some places.

The final section of text on the page includes a large, stylized signature or name at the bottom, possibly 'Juan de...' followed by a flourish. To the right of this signature, there is a smaller, more legible signature that appears to be 'Jomas...' or similar. The text in this section is less dense than the previous ones.
