Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily scribbled over. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten signatures and names at the bottom of the page. The names are written in a highly stylized cursive script. One name is clearly legible as "Calderone". To the right, another name appears to be "Domingo de Calcaras". Below these names, there are several lines of smaller, less legible handwriting, possibly including the word "amem" and "menciona".
