

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily faded. The script is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The handwriting is very fluid and connected, typical of the 'cursiva' style of the period. There are some large, decorative initials or flourishes at the beginning and end of sections. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical manuscript.
