

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is written in a dark ink on aged paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are some faint markings and a large flourish at the top left. The text appears to be a formal record or a set of instructions, possibly related to land or property, given the mention of 'valles' and 'señor'. The handwriting is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.
