

SELLO QVARTO, DIEZ MARA
MEDISANO ODMISE SCIEN
TOS Y NOVENTA Y SEIS.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a royal decree or official correspondence. The text is partially obscured by the circular seal and is written on aged, stained paper. It appears to begin with 'Yo el Rey' and mentions 'Sancho de Albornoz'.

Continuation of handwritten text at the bottom of the page, separated by a horizontal line. It appears to be a list of names or titles, possibly related to the 'seis' mentioned in the header.
