

The first thing I observed in the morning was a
 heavy fog that had settled over the town. The streets
 were completely
 covered in a thick layer of white mist. I could hardly see
 the buildings
 across the way.
 The air was cold
 and damp. I had to wear my heavy coat and
 a scarf. The
 fog was so thick
 that I had to walk very slowly.
 I was afraid I
 would get lost.
 The fog lasted
 for several hours.
 It was very annoying. I had to wait for
 the fog to lift
 before I could go to work.

The fog was very thick. I could not see more
 than a few feet
 ahead of me.
 I was very nervous. I had never experienced
 such a thick
 fog before.
