

A questo libro aduso de la libreria
1611

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The script is dense and cursive, but largely illegible due to the paper's condition and the angle of the writing.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date. The words are difficult to decipher but appear to include "1611" and "de la libreria".
