

M. J.

The first of William's letters to the King, dated the 1st of the 17th, has been long known to be a copy of the original.

The second of the same nature, dated the 1st of the 17th, is also a copy of the original.

The third of the same
of the original.

The fourth of the same
of the original.
