

Fragment of a handwritten document on aged, stained paper. The text is written in cursive and is largely illegible due to fading and damage. The document is divided into sections by horizontal lines. On the left side, there is a vertical column of numbers: 1158, 111, and 111. The main body of the text contains several lines of script, including what appears to be a signature or name in the center. The paper shows signs of significant wear, including brown stains and irregular edges.
