

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly a title or introductory paragraph.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Faint text block following the first section header.

POTENTIALS AND CORRELATIONS

Text block following the second section header, starting with a faint heading.

Text block following the third section header, containing several lines of faint text.

Text block following the fourth section header, containing several lines of faint text.

Faint handwritten notes or signatures at the bottom left of the page.

Faint printed or stamped text at the bottom center of the page.

