

1811

Journal

The first day of the month was spent in the city of New York. The weather was very pleasant. I went to the office of the Secretary of the Treasury and saw the accounts of the public revenue.
 I also saw the
 accounts of the
 public expenditure.
 The accounts were very interesting and I saw that the government
 was in a very prosperous
 state. I also saw that the public
 debt was very small. I was very much pleased to see that the government was in a very
 prosperous
 state. I also saw
 that the public
 debt was very small. I was
 very much
 pleased to see
 that the
 government was in a very
 prosperous
 state.

