

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher due to its orientation and cursive style. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a ledger or account book. The text is written in a cursive script, likely from the 17th or 18th century. The entries are separated by horizontal lines, and there are some markings on the right side that could be interpreted as a list or a set of numbers.
