Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It appears to be a record or a set of instructions, possibly related to the 'Weymarcher Hof' mentioned in the header. The script is somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and some fading.

Vertical handwritten notes or marginalia on the left side of the page, written in the same cursive script as the main text. These notes appear to be supplementary information or corrections related to the main document.
