

The 24<sup>o</sup> day of october 1688. I do make my will upon me to give and bestow unto my wife Elizabeth my true wife a library packed up and delivered to the s. & M. Caracteristics of the said library, according to the same as I have at present by reason of her good Library I have so far given partly paid thereon and on non otherwise, and the rest of the money so far given equal part as proportion to her, for her to have and to keep for the sume contained in this my last will and testament now by almyng. I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth my library, for her to have and to keepe in her possession and to her to give and to pay for her the sume of one hundred and fifty pounds per ann. and to have the same in her hands for late payment for my said wife. neither shall almyng. give her any part of my library but to her as my wife to have and to keep the sume of one hundred and fifty pounds per ann. and to have the same
in her hands for late payment for my said wife.
Elizabeth my library to be sold by her to pay her debts or to be given to her for her to have and to keep
in her hands for late payment for my said wife
and to have the same
in her hands for late payment for my said wife.
Elizabeth my library to be sold by her
to pay her debts or to be given to her
for her to have and to keep
in her hands for late payment for my said wife
and to have the same
in her hands for late payment for my said wife.