

THE HISTORY OF THE
CITY OF LONDON

The first thing that I observed when I came to the City of London was the great number of people that were in the streets. I saw many people of all ages and conditions of life. Some were rich and some were poor. Some were in the streets and some were in the houses. I saw many people who were very poor and who were very dirty. I saw many people who were very rich and who were very clean. I saw many people who were very old and who were very young. I saw many people who were very healthy and who were very sick. I saw many people who were very happy and who were very sad. I saw many people who were very good and who were very bad. I saw many people who were very wise and who were very foolish. I saw many people who were very brave and who were very cowardly. I saw many people who were very kind and who were very cruel. I saw many people who were very
generous and who were very stingy. I saw many people who were very honest and who were very dishonest. I saw many people who were very true and who were very false. I saw many people who were very good and who were very bad. I saw many people who were very wise and who were very foolish. I saw many people who were very
brave and who were very cowardly.
I saw many people who were very
brave and who were very cowardly.

The second thing that I observed
when I came to the City of London was the great number of houses.
I saw many houses of all ages and conditions of life. Some were very old and some were very new. Some were very rich and some were very poor.
I saw many houses who were very old and who were very dirty. I saw many houses who
very clean. I saw many houses
very young. I saw many houses who were very healthy and who
houses who were very happy and
houses who were very good and
houses who were very wise and
many houses who were very brave and who were very cowardly. I saw many houses who were very
stingy. I saw many houses who
houses who were very true and
many houses who were very good and who were very bad. I saw many houses who were very wise
