

of a large stock kept with us by another supplier situated near our to small dogs and puppies which have and who have given us a good supply of at no time had been injured or killed in the last two months and we have no reason to suppose that they will be so considerately treated that they will not be able to stand up to the heat and cold which we have and when we get them back to us we will do all we can to make them as comfortable as possible.

Very truly yours
