

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several lines of a letter or document.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "John Thomas" or similar, written in a cursive style.

