

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several lines of script.

Large, faint handwritten signature or name, possibly "John" or "James", written in a cursive style. The ink is very light and the letters are somewhat blurred.

Additional faint handwritten text or markings at the bottom of the page, including what appears to be a date or a short phrase, though it is mostly illegible due to fading.
