

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a Latin document. The text is dense and spans most of the page. It appears to be a formal letter or a record of a transaction, with several lines of text. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or a name, located to the right of the seal. The script is cursive and somewhat stylized.

Handwritten text, possibly a date or a specific reference, located below the seal. The script is cursive and somewhat stylized.

Large handwritten signature or name, possibly 'Juan de...' or similar, written in a highly stylized cursive script. Below this signature, there are several lines of smaller, less legible handwritten text, which may be a list of items or a detailed account. The text is written in the same cursive style as the rest of the document.