

John Jay

263.

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible due to fading and bleed-through. It appears to be a formal document or letter.]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th inst. in relation to the proposed amendments to the Constitution. I am sensible of the importance of the subject, and I have the pleasure to inform you that the Committee on the subject have reported to the Senate that they are in favor of the amendments proposed. I have the honor to inform you that the Senate have passed the amendments on the 27th inst. and I have the pleasure to inform you that they have passed the amendments on the 27th inst. I have the honor to inform you that the House of Representatives have passed the amendments on the 27th inst. I have the honor to inform you that the amendments have been ratified by the States. I have the honor to inform you that the amendments have been ratified by the States. I have the honor to inform you that the amendments have been ratified by the States.

